Guidelines for Visitors

Welcome to the Allegheny Front Hawk Watch. This privately owned site is used for scientific monitoring and research purposes. Thank you for visiting. The Counter of the day or any of the other volunteers will be happy to answer any of your questions. We hope you enjoy your time here and please remember:

- The hawk watch is staffed by volunteers. The Counter of the day has full authority and discretion to restrict usage and visitation.
- The days and hours of operation vary based on season and weather. The Counter has complete authority regarding hours for the day.
- Be respectful and appreciative of the property, the property owner's generosity, other guests, and volunteers.
- No loud, disruptive, or unruly behavior will be tolerated.
- Alcohol and illegal substances are prohibited.
- Open carry of firearms is prohibited.
- Pets must be leashed and under the control of the owner. Clean up after your pets.
- Take your trash home with you.
- Park vehicles in the designated lot, not in grass or landscaped areas.
- Neighboring properties are privately owned. Do not leave the maintained parking and lawn areas.
- Smile...the site is under video surveillance.

The Allegheny Front Hawk Watch is maintained by volunteers from the Allegheny Plateau Audubon Society and donations from members and guests. If you would like to help, please visit <https://www.alleghenyplateauaudubon.org/donations-and-volunteering>
